Revolutionary Change in Child Welfare: An Antiracist Framework

Revolutionary change is needed to ensure our family support systems are equitable for all. Join Dr. Pryce as we explore how to change systems by looking inward, examining power dynamics and privilege within systems. Dr. Pryce will help the audience identify their own personal and institutional philosophies, mindsets, and values and how shifting those toward antiracism will lead to true systemic change. Every child and family serving professional will learn how to meaningfully partner with families and co-design a path forward.

Introductory Remarks: Sarita Rogers, Children's Trust

Closing Remarks: Meri Viano, Parent/Professional Advocacy League
